Talmage's Word Painting

The Ray, P. De Witt Talmage delivered a characteristic sermon Sunday based upon what he saw during his recent transcontinental journey.

"That Valley of the Yosemite is eight miles long and a half mile wide and three thousand feet deep. It seems as if it had been the meaning of Omnipotence to crowd into as small a place as possible some of the most stupendous scenery of the world.

Some of the cliff-you do not stop to measure by feet for they are literally a mile high.

If J houst has a throne on earth these are

is write pillars.
"No pause for the eye, no stopping place for the mind. Mountains hurled on moun tates. Mountains in the wake of mountains Mountains flanke: by mountains. Moun tains split. Mountains ground. Mountains fatien. Mountains triumphant. As though Mont Bianc and the Adi:ondacks and Mount Washington were here uttering them serves in one magnificent chorus of rock and precipics and waterfall.

Yonder is Yosemite Falls, dropping 2634 feet, sixteen times greater descent than that of Niagaia. These waters dashed death on the rocks, so that the white spirit of the slain waters ascending in a robe of mist seeks the heaven. Yonder is robe of mist seeks the heaven. Yonder is Nevada Fatis, plunging 700 feet, the water in arrows, the water in rockets, the water in pearls, the water in machysts, the water in aiamonds. That cascade flings down the rocks enough jewels to array all the earth to really, and rushes on until it drops into a very hell of waters, the smoke of their communical machine forever and ever. 'But the most wonderful part of this

American continent is the Yellowstone Park.
After all postry has exhausted itself and all the Morans and Bierstadts and the other enchanting artists have completed their can-vas, there will be other revelations to make and other stories of its beauty and wrath, pendor and agony to be recited. Yellowone Park is a geologist's paradise.

'In some portions of it there seems to be the shareby of the elements. Fire and water, and the vapor born of that marriage, terrific Geyser cones or hills of crystal that have been over five thousand years wing. In places the earth, throbbing, coming, greaning, quaking with squeous

"But after you have wandered along the ceyserire enchantment for days and begin to feel that there can be nothing more of interest to see, you suddenly come upon the per-oration of all majesty and grandeur, the Grand Canyon. It is here that it seems to me-sud I speak it with reverence-Jehome—and I speak it with reverence—Jehovah seems to have surpassed Himself. It seems a great guich let down into the eter-

Here, hung up and let down and spread abroad, are all the colors of land and sea and sky. Upholstering of the Lord God Almighty. Best work of the Architect of Worlds. Sculpturing by the infinite. Ma-sonry by an omnipotent trowel. Yellow! You never saw yellow unless you saw it there. Red! You never saw red unless you saw it there. Violet! You never saw violet nule-s you saw it there. Triumphant banpera of color. In a cathedral of basalt, sunrise and sunset married by the setting of rainbow ring.
'Gothic arches, Corinthian capitals and Egyptian basilicas built before human architecture was born. Huge fortifications of granite constructed before war forged its first cannon. Gibraltars and Sebastopols that never can be taken. Alhambras where kings of strength and queens of beauty reign-ed long before the first earthly crown was impearled. Thrones on which no one but the King of Heaven and Earth ever sat. Font of waters at which the lesser hills are baptised, while the giant cliffs stand round as sponsors.

"Hanging over one of the cliffs I looked off until I could not get my breath, then retreating to a less exposed place I looked down again. Down there is a pillar of rock that in certain conditions of the atmosphere locks like a pillar of blood. Yonder are fif ty feet of emerald on a base of five hundred feet of opal. Wall of chalk resting on pedestals of beryl. Turrets of light tumbling on floors of darkn ss. The brown brightening into golden. Snow of crystal melting into fire of carbuncle. Flaming red cooling into russet. Cold blue warming into saffron. Dull gray kindling into solferino. Morning twilight flushing midnight shadows. Au-roras crouching among rocks.

"See all this carnage of color up and down the cliff; it must have been the battlefield of the war of the elements. Here are all the colors of the wall of heaven, neither the sapphire nor th chrysolite, nor the topsz, nor the jaciuth, nor the amethyet, nor the jasper, nor the twelve gates of twelve pearls wanting "

Bill saved by always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house. If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night; if you lead a sedentary life or are weakened by the strain of your duties; if you need a cathartic to relax the bowels; if you require action on the Liver to relieve Indigestion; if you require something to purify the blood and regulate the system; if you are traveling in unhealthy localities, or food or water does not agree with you, a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator will remove all trouble.

Ex-Governor of Ga., and U.S. Senator Joseph E. Brown says: "You are at liberty to use my name in praise of Simmons Liver Regulator, and recommend it to everyone as the best preventive of Fever and Ague. It super cedes Quinine if taken in time."
